

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Southern Resident Orcas ("the Orcas") are culturally, spiritually, and economically important to the people of Washington State and the world; and

WHEREAS, despite legal protections for nearly two decades, the population continues to decline and is critically endangered, with only 73 individuals left; and

WHEREAS, the Orcas' survival is dependent on healthy and functioning ecosystems; and

WHEREAS, over 20 countries, dozens of local communities in the United States, and several tribal governments have recognized that nature has inherent rights, and that human society has the responsibility to protect and steward nature in a manner consistent with our interconnected relationships; and

WHEREAS, the rights of the Southern Resident Orcas include, but are not limited to, the right to life, autonomy, culture, free and safe passage, adequate food supply from naturally occurring sources, and freedom from conditions causing physical, emotional, or mental harm, including a habitat degraded by noise, pollution, and contamination.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, David J Faber, Mayor of the City of Port Townsend, do hereby proclaim on this 5th day of December 2022: The City of Port Townsend supports and urges action by local, state, federal, and tribal governments that secure and effectuate the

Rights of the Southern Resident Orcas

and of the ecosystems upon which they depend

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "David J. Faber", is written over a horizontal line. The signature is stylized and cursive.

David J. Faber, Mayor

PROCLAMATION OF THE MAYOR OF THE CITY OF GIG HARBOR

Recognizing the Rights and Value of the Southern Resident Orca

WHEREAS, the Southern Resident Orcas are culturally and economically important to the people of Washington State and the world; and

WHEREAS, despite legal protections for nearly two decades, the population continues to decline and is critically endangered, with only 74 individuals remaining; and

WHEREAS, over 20 countries, dozens of local communities in the United States, and several tribal governments have recognized that nature has inherent rights, and that human society has the responsibility to protect and steward nature; and

WHEREAS, the rights of the Southern Resident Orcas include, but are not limited to, the right to life, autonomy, free and safe passage, adequate food supply from naturally occurring sources, and freedom from conditions causing physical, emotional, or mental harm, including a habitat degraded by noise, pollution, and contamination; and

WHEREAS, major factors in the decline of the Southern Resident Orca population include captures for marine parks in the 1960s and 70s, declining salmon runs, toxic pollution, loss of habitat, and increasing vessel traffic and noise levels in Puget Sound and the ocean; and

WHEREAS, bringing attention to the Southern Resident Orcas will also bring attention to the need to clean up Puget Sound and restore and conserve important Puget Sound habitats and Chinook salmon spawning grounds; and

WHEREAS, we are fortunate to have this community of Southern Resident Orcas in our midst, know them as individuals and pods, and watch them from our ferries, boats, and many miles of shoreline; and

WHEREAS, we have only begun to learn about the intelligence and social capabilities of Southern Resident Orcas; and

WHEREAS, Washington State supports efforts to recover this endangered population of Southern Resident Orcas.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Tracie Markley, Mayor of the City of Gig Harbor, Washington, do hereby proclaim that the City of Gig Harbor supports and urges action by local, State, federal, and tribal governments that secure and effectuate the rights of the Southern Resident Orcas and of the ecosystems upon which they depend.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Gig Harbor to be affixed this 12th day of December, 2022.

Tracie Markley, Mayor

City of Langley, Washington

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Southern Resident Orcas (“the Orcas”) are culturally, spiritually, and economically important to the people of Washington State and the world. However, despite legal protections for nearly two decades, the population continues to decline and is critically endangered, with only 73 individuals left in the wild.

WHEREAS, the Orcas’ survival is dependent on healthy and functioning ecosystems including the Salish Sea, the Fraser River Watershed, the Columbia River Basin, and the lower Snake River Watershed.

WHEREAS, the rights of marine mammals to exist and flourish have been recognized internationally and locally, including through the Helsinki Declaration (2010), the Marine Life Proclamation of the City of Malibu, California (2014), and the City of San Francisco’s resolution guaranteeing the Free and Safe Passage of Whales and Dolphins in San Francisco’s Coastal Waters (2014).

WHEREAS, in May 2018, the Affiliated Tribes of Northwest Indians of the United States, passed a resolution (Resolution #18-32) recognizing Blackfish (referred to by non-indigenous peoples as “Orcas”) as revered relations for which there is a sacred obligation to ensure they are treated “in a dignified manner that reflects tribal cultural values that have been passed down for countless generations.”

WHEREAS, over 20 countries, dozens of local communities in the United States, and several tribal governments have recognized that Nature has inherent rights, and that human society has the responsibility to protect and steward Nature in a manner consistent with our interconnected relationship.

WHEREAS, Nature and all living beings, including the Southern Resident Orcas and the ecosystems upon which they depend, are recognized as possessing inherent rights, including to exist, flourish, evolve, regenerate, recover, and be restored.

WHEREAS, the rights of the Southern Resident Orcas include, but are not limited to, the right to: life, autonomy, culture, free and safe passage, adequate food supply from naturally occurring sources, and freedom from conditions causing physical, emotional, or mental harm, including a habitat degraded by noise, pollution and contamination.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Scott Chaplin, Mayor of the City of Langley, do hereby proclaim on this 19th day of December, 2022: The City of Langley supports and urges action by local, state, federal, and tribal governments that secure and effectuate the rights of the Southern Resident Orcas and of the ecosystems upon which they depend.

Scott Chaplin, Mayor

PROCLAMATION

Declaration of Rights for the Southern Resident Orcas

WHEREAS, the Southern Resident Orcas have been a sacred, spiritual species to the indigenous people and Tribes of the North Olympic Peninsula since time immemorial; and

WHEREAS, the Orca are culturally and economically important to the people of Washington State and the world. However, despite legal protections for nearly two decades, the population continues to decline and is critically endangered, with only 73 of these magnificent creatures left in the wild; and

WHEREAS, the Orcas' survival is dependent on healthy and functioning ecosystems including the Salish Sea, the Fraser River Watershed, the Columbia River Basin, and the lower Snake River Watershed; and

WHEREAS, over 20 countries, dozens of local communities in the United States, and several Tribal governments have recognized that nature has inherent rights, and that human society has the responsibility to protect and steward Nature in a manner consistent with our interconnected relationship; and

WHEREAS, Nature and all living beings, including the Southern Resident Orcas and the ecosystems upon which they depend, are recognized as possessing inherent rights, including the right to exist, flourish, evolve, regenerate, recover, and be restored; and

WHEREAS, the rights of the Southern Resident Orcas include, but are not limited to, the right to: life, autonomy, culture, free and safe passage, adequate food supply from naturally occurring sources, and freedom from conditions causing physical, emotional, or mental harm, including a habitat degraded by noise, pollution and contamination;

NOW THEREFORE, the Jefferson County Board of Commissioners does hereby proclaim a Declaration of Rights for the Southern Resident Orcas and urges action by local, state, federal, and tribal governments to secure the ecosystems upon which these orcas depend.

PROCLAIMED this 17th day of January, 2023.

SEAL:

ATTEST:

Carolyn Gallaway
Carolyn Gallaway, CMC Clerk of the Board

JEFFERSON COUNTY
BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS

Greg Brotherton
Greg Brotherton, Chair

Kate Dean
Kate Dean, Member

Heidi Eisenhour
Heidi Eisenhour, Member

SAN JUAN COUNTY
County Council

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Southern Resident Killer Whales are culturally, spiritually, and economically important to the people of San Juan County, the Salish Sea, the State of Washington and the world; and

WHEREAS, the survival of the Southern Resident Killer Whales is dependent on healthy and functioning ecosystems; and

WHEREAS, we value the ability of the Southern Resident Killer Whales to have the right to life, culture, free and safe passage, adequate food supply, and freedom from conditions causing physical, emotional, or mental harm, including a habitat degraded by noise, pollution, and contamination;

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that we, the San Juan County Council do hereby proclaim on this 7th day of February 2023: San Juan County urges our State and Federal governments to deepen their commitment to restoring the bounty of the Salish Sea and gratefully supports actions taken by State, Federal and Tribal governments that secure and effectuate the rights of the Southern Resident Killer Whales and of the ecosystems upon which they depend.

Cindy Wolf, Chair
District 2

Jane Fuller, Vice-Chair
District 3

Christine Minney, Member
District 1

PROCLAMATION

A PROCLAMATION by the City Council of the City of Bainbridge Island, Washington, supporting the rights of Southern Resident Orcas.

WHEREAS, the Southern Resident Orcas (the “Orcas”) are culturally, spiritually, and economically important to the people of Washington State and the world. However, despite legal protections for nearly two decades, the population continues to decline and is critically endangered, with only 73 individuals left in the wild; and

WHEREAS, the Orcas’ survival is dependent on healthy and functioning ecosystems including the Salish Sea, the Fraser River Watershed, the Columbia River Basin, and the lower Snake River Watershed; and

WHEREAS, the rights of marine mammals to exist and flourish have been recognized internationally and locally, including through the Helsinki Declaration (2010), the Marine Life Proclamation of the City of Malibu, California (2014), and the City of San Francisco’s resolution guaranteeing the Free and Safe Passage of Whales and Dolphins in San Francisco’s Coastal Waters (2014); and

WHEREAS, in May 2018, the Affiliated Tribes of Northwest Indians of the United States, passed a resolution (Resolution #18-32) recognizing the Orcas (also known as Blackfish) as revered relations for which there is a sacred obligation to ensure they are treated “in a dignified manner that reflects tribal cultural values that have been passed down for countless generations;” and

WHEREAS, over 20 countries, dozens of local communities in the United States, and several tribal governments have recognized that Nature has inherent rights, and that human society has the responsibility to protect and steward Nature in a manner consistent with our interconnected relationship; and

WHEREAS, Nature and all living beings, including the Orcas and the ecosystems upon which they depend, are recognized as possessing inherent rights, including to exist, flourish, evolve, regenerate, recover, and be restored; and

WHEREAS, the rights of the Orcas include, but are not limited to, the right to: life, autonomy, culture, free and safe passage, adequate food supply from naturally occurring sources, and freedom from conditions causing physical, emotional, or mental harm, including a habitat degraded by noise, pollution and contamination.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Brenda Fantroy-Johnson, Mayor of the City of Bainbridge Island, on behalf of the City Council, do hereby proclaim on this 14th day of February, 2023 that the City of Bainbridge Island supports and urges action by local, state, federal, and tribal governments that secure and effectuate the rights of the Southern Resident Orcas and of the ecosystems upon which they depend.

DATED this 14th day of February, 2023

Brenda Fantroy-Johnson
Brenda Fantroy-Johnson, Mayor

City of Des Moines

ADMINISTRATION
21630 11TH AVENUE SOUTH, SUITE A
DES MOINES, WASHINGTON 98198-6398
(206) 878-4595 T.D.D.: (206) 824-6024 FAX: (206) 870-6540

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Southern Resident Orcas (the Orcas) are culturally, spiritually and economically important to the people of Washington State and the world; and

WHEREAS, despite legal protections for nearly two decades, the population continues to decline and is critically endangered, with only 73 individuals left; and

WHEREAS, the Orca's survival is dependent on healthy and functioning ecosystems, and

WHEREAS, over 20 countries, dozens of local communities in the United States, and several tribal governments have recognized that nature has inherent rights, and that human society has the responsibility to protect and steward nature in a manner consistent with our interconnected relationships; and

WHEREAS, the rights of the Southern Resident Orcas include, but are not limited to, the right to life, autonomy, culture, free and safe passage, adequate food supply from naturally occurring sources, and freedom from conditions causing physical, emotional, or mental harm, including a habitat degraded by noise, pollution, and contamination,

NOW THEREFORE, THE DES MOINES CITY COUNCIL HEREBY PROCLAIMS and urges action by local, State, federal and tribal governments that secure and effectuate the

Rights of the Southern Resident Orcas

and of the ecosystems upon which they depend.

SIGNED this 9th day of March, 2023

Matt Mahoney, Mayor

Resolution No. R2023-30

A Resolution of the Pierce County Council Recognizing the Inherent Rights of the Southern Resident Orcas in Pierce County, Washington.

Whereas, the Southern Resident Orcas (Orcas) are culturally, spiritually, and economically important to the people of Washington State and the world and have been a sacred, spiritual species to the Tribes of Pierce County since time immemorial; and

Whereas, in May 2018, the Affiliated Tribes of Northwest Indians of the United States passed a resolution (Resolution #18-32) recognizing the Orcas as revered relations for which there is a sacred obligation to ensure they are treated "in a dignified manner that reflects tribal cultural values that have been passed down for countless generations"; and

Whereas, the community of Southern Resident Orcas were listed as an endangered species in November 2005, but despite legal protections for nearly two decades, Orca populations continue to decline and are critically endangered, with just over 70 Orcas left in the wild; and

Whereas, the Orcas' survival is dependent on healthy and functioning ecosystems, and the remedy of identified major factors in the decline of Orcas including declining salmon habitat and runs, increased competition for prey, toxic pollution, climate change, population growth, increasing vessel traffic, and noise; and

Whereas, through collaborative work with the Puyallup Tribe of Indians, the Muckleshoot Indian Tribe, the Nisqually Indian Tribe, the Squaxin Island Tribe, Salmon Recovery Lead Entities, local Watershed Councils, and other federal, state, and local partners, Pierce County is working to implement policies and programs that promote Orca recovery through efforts to address impacts to critical areas, remove fish passage barriers, treat and reduce stormwater impacts prior to entering South Puget Sound, implement a salmon habitat restoration and protection program, plan for climate resilience, prevent human waste pollution through a mobile pump-out boat program, and more; and

Whereas, over 20 countries, dozens of local communities in the United States, and several tribal governments have recognized that nature has inherent rights, and that human society has the responsibility to protect and steward nature in a manner consistent with our interconnected relationship; and

Whereas, nature and all living beings, including the Orcas and the ecosystems upon which they depend, are recognized as possessing inherent rights, including the right to exist, flourish, evolve, regenerate, recover, and be restored; and

Whereas, the rights of the Orcas include, but are not limited to, the right to life, autonomy, culture, free and safe passage, adequate food supply from naturally occurring sources, and freedom from conditions causing physical, emotional, or mental harm, including a habitat degraded by noise, pollution, and contamination; Now, Therefore,

BE IT PROCLAIMED by the Pierce County Council that the Southern Resident Orcas have these inherent rights, and urge action by local, state, federal, and tribal governments that secure and effectuate the rights of the Southern Resident Orcas and of the ecosystems upon which they depend.

ADOPTED this 28th day of March 2023.

ATTEST:

Denise D. Johnson

Denise D. Johnson
Clerk to the Council

PIERCE COUNTY COUNCIL

Ryan N. Mello

Ryan N. Mello, Chair, District No. 4

Marty Campbell

Marty Campbell, District No. 5

Jani Hitchen

Jani Hitchen, District No. 6

Robyn Denson

Robyn Denson, District No. 7

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Southern Resident Orcas (“the Orcas”) are culturally, spiritually, and economically important to the people of Oregon and the world; and

WHEREAS, despite legal protections for nearly two decades, the population continues to decline and is critically endangered with only 73 individuals left; and

WHEREAS, the Orcas’ survival is dependent on healthy and functioning ecosystems; and,

WHEREAS, over 20 countries, dozens of local communities in the United States, and several tribal governments have recognized that nature has inherent rights and that human society has the responsibility to protect and steward nature in a manner consistent with our interconnected relationships; and,

WHEREAS, the rights of the Southern Resident Orcas include, but are not limited to, the right to life, autonomy, culture, free and safe passage, adequate food supply from naturally occurring sources, and freedom from conditions causing physical, emotional, or mental harm, including a habitat degraded by noise, pollution, and contamination.

NOW THEREFORE THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF DEPOE BAY PROCLAIMS ON THIS 6TH DAY OF JUNE 2023: The City of Depoe Bay supports and urges action by local, state, federal, and tribal governments that secure and effectuate the rights of the Southern Resident Orcas and of the ecosystems upon which they depend.

Dated this _____ day of June 2023.

Kathy Short
Mayor